1. I have served in Diocesan Council for 3 years and was elected as Chair of Worcester Corridor Revival Committee.
2. I seek to serve in Diocesan Council because I would like to serve the Church beyond my local context. This will give me the opportunity to share with the parishes I serve what is going on in the greater church and share with the diocese what is going on at the local level.
3. Some of the issues that I believe are important in the life of the diocese and the church are social justice, environmental needs, racial reconciliation, and lifting up multicultural and multilingual ways of worship.
