I believe that my experience in a variety of roles at St. Andrew's may be helpful in discussions of the Cathedral Chapter. Hopefully, I can continue to be of service as we move through this time of pandemic, as well as in the future years as things "normalize".

This is such a difficult time in the life of the church and the world. I believe that the diocese and our churches can be beacons of light and hope during this very dark time as we show Christ's love the world around us.
