Province I in New England is a particularly engaged corner of ECUSA. One example is the program for forming those called to the permanent Diaconate. I would be pleased to represent the Diocese of Western Massachusetts to the Province I Synod.

We have a wonderful Province with great spiritual energy. The Spirit moves us to seek God's presence everywhere: in the faces and voices of those on the margins, in those who feel called to restore justice, dignity, and peace to those who struggle, and in Creation itself.
